

ANWAR ABDULNABI

Irbid, Jordan
a.abdulnabi@jadara.edu.jo

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior Educational Counselor and Driven Academic Advisor with 10 years of experience in secondary and pre-secondary education and PhD degree in Psychological Counseling from Yarmouk University. Skillful in discussing career goals with students and connecting students with appropriate resources and aide. Coordinated and focused relationship builder dedicated to student development and maximizing learning opportunities in diverse academic settings.

SKILLS

- Student support and Individual counseling
- Ability to organize and prioritize works tasks .
- Ability to work independently and under pressure
- Cultural awareness and Crisis intervention
- Flexibility: Accepting, developing and harmonizing work changes.
- Speed and accuracy in the performance of the task required.
- Ability to work in an environment with different ages and cultures.
- Team work and leadership management skills.

EXPERIENCE

Educational Counselor August 2011 - Current

Ministry of Education | Irbid, Jordan

- Helped students to develop self-authorship and personal responsibility and to value education.
- Provided holistic academic advising services to assigned caseload of students.
- Determined service needs of students and provided mentoring and coaching support.

Psychologist September 2019 - December 2019

Princess Basma Teaching Hospital | Irbid, Jordan

- Coordinated psychological services tailored to needs of different populations.
- Assisted clients with managing psychological concerns through individual and group therapy.

Member of the Guidance Department January 2017 - January 2018

Directorate of Education of the Taybeh Al-Wasatiyah Brigade | Irbid, Jordan

EDUCATION

PhD - psychological counseling January 2021

Yarmouk University, Irbid, Jordan

Master degree - psychological counseling January 2013

Yarmouk University, Irbid, Jordan

Bachelor degree - psychological counseling
Yarmouk University

January 2009

Tiberias Secondary School, Irbid, Jordan

January 2005

PUBLICATIONS

- Social Networking Sites Addiction as a Predictor of Self-Concealment in a Sample of Students in the Final Year of High School In the Journal of Educational Sciences, Cairo University.
- The Predictive Ability of Social Networking sites Addiction on Self-esteem and Loneliness among secondary School Students In the Jordanian Educational Journal, the Jordanian Association for Educational Sciences.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) first level course of Queen Rania Al Abdullah Center at Yarmouk University.
- A course in language programming skills from the Queen Rania Al Abdullah Center at Yarmouk University.
- Some modern psychological counseling methods from Kids Friends Club at Yarmouk University.
- Use of data to make decisions From the Ministry of Education.
- Building a supportive and inclusive learning environment in public schools From the Queen Rania Al Abdullah Center for Teacher Training.
- Training the community committees of the program to build a supportive and inclusive learning environment in public schools From the Queen Rania Al Abdullah Center for Teacher Training.
- community partnership course From the Ministry of Education.
- Social motivation, facilitation and alternatives to punishment skills From the Jordan River Foundation.
- ICDL course from the Computer Center at Yarmouk University.
- Strengthening the capacities of educational counselors in addressing domestic violence through the school environment From the Peace Land Center for Development.
- Guide to psychosocial support from the Ministry of Education in cooperation with UNICEF.
- Towards Better Learning program from the Ministry of Education in cooperation with the Norwegian Council.

VOLUNTEER

- Qualifying volunteer friends to work with children at risk From Quest Scope for Social

LANGUAGE

Englishaspose_nerdingraphic_0_4.5